

Residents encouraged to review 2018-2022 Financial Plan

Nov 15, 2016

Penticton - In advance of the upcoming 2018 Budget Talks scheduled November 22 through 25, residents are encouraged to review the 2018-2022 Financial Plan and overview document now available at shapeyourcitypenticton.ca/budget-talks. In addition to containing detailed information on all areas of the City's 2018 budget, the document also contains summary information highlighting Council's strategic priorities and key spending areas including: growth and development, the Official Community Plan, safety and enforcement, asset management and geographic information system enhancements.

For residents wishing to provide their input on the financial plan, the City has planned multiple opportunities where they can learn more and ask questions. Upcoming dates are as follows:

2018 Budget Talks

Nov. 22 4 pm to 7 pm PTCC	Business Night Members of the business community are invited to drop in to discuss the plan with staff and attend a presentation at 5:30 pm.
Nov. 23 3 pm to 7 pm PTCC	Community Night Residents are invited to drop in to view the displays, share their feedback with staff and attend presentations at 3:30 pm or 5:30 pm.
Nov. 25 10 am to 1 pm PTCC	Community Day – Family Fun with Par-T-Perfect! Residents are invited to drop in to view the displays and share their feedback with staff. Par-T-Perfect will be on site to entertain the kids with holiday crafts and activities.

Can't attend one of these events? Share your input online at <http://www.shapeyourcitypenticton.ca/budget-talks>.

-30-

Contacts:

Jim Bauer
Chief Financial Officer
250-490-2480
Jim.Bauer@penticton.ca

JoAnne Kleb
Community Engagement Specialist
250-490-2586
Joanne.Kleb@penticton.ca

