5. New Business

5.1 City of Penticton Heritage Registry – Blake Laven, Director of Development Services

The Director of Development Services provided the Committee with a presentation on the City of Penticton Heritage Registry which resulted from a Council direction to refer review and clarification of the City of Penticton Heritage Registry to the Committee to identify how to improve the understanding of heritage properties within the community.

Members at large commented about the GIS Mapping Public Parcel Viewer not being very user friendly which could benefit having a how-to guide and Heritage page on the website should be updated as well to include the GIS Mapping system as an avenue for learning about heritage properties in the City.

A member at large spoke to what properties are protected and how. All Penticton heritage registered sites are now posted on the Federal Site and Provincial Site however the Staff was made aware that the links to the Penticton properties is broken on the Federal site.

Discussions ensued regarding educating heritage property owners by providing information on what incentives are available to them to remain listed on the registry, exploring Heritage Protection Bylaws and a potential education campaign that would include engaging owners of heritage properties, the real-estate industry and the community at large.

It was MOVED and SECONDED

THAT the Heritage and Museum Advisory Committee recommend to Council that Council, City Staff and the Heritage and Museum Advisory Committee work to create a plan to engage the real-estate community and community at large in a public education campaign on heritage matters.

CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY

5.2 Light Scrolls Update – Anne Hargrave, Member at Large

Ms. Hargrave, Member at Large, notified the Committee and City Staff that funding through the BC Heritage Fund may be available next year for restoring the light scrolls. Ms. Hargrave also inquired whether it would be timely to work towards including the light scrolls on the City of Penticton Heritage Register.

City staff to provide the Committee with an update on the status of the light scrolls.

5.3 Heritage Sites Document – Anne Hargrave, Member at Large

Anne Hargrave, Member at Large, informed City Staff that the City of Penticton’s re-activate the link to the records shown on the Canadian Register of Historic Places site.

5.4 Street Naming Process – Blake Laven, Director

The Director of Development Services informed the Committee that a Street Naming bylaw was approved by Council two years ago which acknowledges a street naming list with the purpose of providing developers with names of significance to choose from. The Committee was also informed that should a developer propose a name that is not included in the street naming list that it would be referred to the Committee for consideration.

Mr. Manuel, Consulting Guest, provided valuable historic information on the inquiry from the City’s Building Department regarding the area around 2725 Dartmouth Drive. The Director of Development Services informed the Committee that the developer has chosen three potential street names for consideration that include Falcon Court, Hawk Court and Grouse Place.

A member at large proposed Phipps and Smuin which are two family names that fit the history of the proposed area. The Committee was informed that the name Phipps is included in the street naming list, however, Smuin is not.

It was MOVED and SECONDED

THAT the Heritage and Museum Advisory Committee recommend that Phipps and Smuin be considered as potential street names with historic attachment by the developer for the area around 2725 Dartmouth Drive.

CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Throughout your Committee term you are required to ensure that you do not participate in matters when you have a conflict of interest.

A conflict of interest includes a pecuniary interest or another interest in a matter that constitutes a conflict, such as personal interest in a matter that is a distinct from the interest other citizens would have in the matter generally.

A pecuniary interest refers to an interest a matter which may have financial consequences for you, such that you might be seen to have a recognizable incentive to vote for financial reasons. The phrase "pecuniary interest" is interpreted broadly. The interest does not mean there is a direct financial benefit or loss to you. It is sufficient if a matter has the potential to impact your pecuniary interests, whether directly or through another person or corporation, such as a close family member or your employer.

Accordingly, you hereby acknowledge the following:

1. It is your responsibility, as an individual committee member, to be aware of a potential conflict of interest and to declare the conflict when it arises.
2. If you are unsure of whether you may have a conflict, it is your responsibility to obtain further advice or information in respect of the matter.
3. Once you have declared a conflict in relation to a matter coming before the committee, you must not:
 - a. Participate in any discussion of the matter;
 - b. Vote; or
 - c. Attempt in any way, whether before, during or after the committee meeting, to influence the decision of others.
4. If you participate when you have a conflict, the consequence is removal from the committee by Council.

Please confirm your acknowledgement and agreement with the foregoing by signing and returning this declaration to the City.

CONFIDENTIALITY DECLARATION

Throughout your Committee term you will be exposed to and have access to confidential "information" which is the property of The Corporation of The City of Penticton (the "City"). Committee members with access to this information must not use it for personal benefit or in any way that could be detrimental to the City. The term Information will not, however, include information which is or becomes publicly available other than as a result of a disclosure by you.

Accordingly, you hereby agree that:

1. You will keep Information confidential and will not (except as required by applicable law, regulation or legal process), without the City's prior written consent, disclose any Information in any manner whatsoever;
2. You will not (except as required by applicable law, regulation or legal process), without the City's prior written consent, disclose to any person the fact that the Information exists;
3. You will safeguard all Information to which you have access against inappropriate and unauthorized access by others;
4. You agree to report incidents of misuse or abuse of information;
5. The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act gives individuals a right of access to records subject to certain conditions. The City has procedures in place for handling requests for information under this Act. Any questions regarding privacy or the release of information not covered by these procedures should be referred to the Corporate Officer;
6. This declaration will be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of British Columbia and the British Columbia Courts will have exclusive jurisdiction to hear all matters arising here-from.

Please confirm your declaration with the foregoing by signing and returning to the City herewith.
