Welcome!

We hope you find the open house valuable.
Here is how to get the most from this session:

- Review the boards and write down your questions.
- Keep conversations brief to allow more residents to speak with Council.
- Let's hear all voices.
- Abuse will not be tolerated

Public Safety and Partnerships

Strategic Priorities

The strategic priorities were arrived at through a consensus-based process. The activities defined in the Framework reflect the areas where the City had a lead role to play. Partnerships are inherent to the successful achievement of our goals in each area.

Leash-Optional Pilot Project

LEASH-OPTIONAL ZONE

WELL-BEHAVED DOGS are welcome to enter this area off-leash. Dogs must be monitored and under control at all times.

WARNING: This is not a fenced area and the park is a shared space. You are responsible for your dog's behaviour and safety.

OKANAGAN LAKE PARK

How was your visit?
Let us know!

The leash-optional pilot project is running at this location until August 31, 2024.

We want to hear from you! What works? What doesn't?
Fill out a short feedback form at shapeyourcitypenticton.ca

IMPORTANT

- All dogs must:
 - Be monitored and under control at all times.
 - Be properly leashed when outside of this pilot project zone.
 - Have a current licence available for verification.
- Dogs exhibiting aggressive behaviour must be removed immediately.
- Dogs in heat are not permitted.
- Owners must clean up after their dogs.
