in September 2017, we approached the City of Penticton for an emergency grant of $5,000 to help fund a training of Recovery Coaches. Recovery coaches support those in recovery, from meetings to behavioural training, accountability and moral support. The training was successful with 20 attendees, and we have been actively coaching about 10 individuals. A number of those have been referral from other agencies in Penticton, which was our dream. Our next step is to train additional coaches, which will allow us to actually publicize our services. In the meantime, we are conducting a brand new curriculum in March, titled Youth Recovery Coaching academy, and we will be ready to support the recovery needs of the Foundry.
