

Winter Recreation Guide Ready for Release

(Penticton, BC – November 28, 2023) – The Winter Recreation Guide will be available online and in print at select locations beginning Wednesday, Nov. 29. New and favourite programs return for residents to explore and enjoy, with registration opening at 8:00 a.m. on Thursday, Dec. 6.

This edition of the Recreation Guide continues offering community favourites in youth and adult programming such as Mini Doodlers, Tumble Bees, Zumba and Painting classes as well as new recreation opportunities for all ages.

“We’re excited to offer new programs this season like Youth Rec Nights for teens and mindfulness-based workshops for adults,” said Manager of Recreation, Arts & Culture, Kelsey Johnson. “We also continue to strive to ensure recreation is accessible to all and our Friends in Motion program offers adaptive programming for activities, crafts, music and more for those with diverse abilities. There’s something for everyone in the Winter Recreation Guide and we encourage the community to take a look and discover what we have to offer.”

The guide will be available online at penticton.ca/recguide or can be picked up at the following locations:

1. Penticton Community Centre
2. Okanagan College
3. Penticton Seniors Drop-in Centre
4. OneSky Community Resources
5. Penticton Public Library
6. Penticton Art Gallery
7. BGC Okanagan

Registration for programs opens at 8:00 a.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 6 for residents and Thursday, Dec. 7 for non-residents. Sign up online through the City’s website at penticton.ca/register or by calling the Penticton Community Centre at 250-490-2426 ext. 6.
