

By-election workshop scheduled, nomination packages now available

(Penticton, BC – January 21, 2025) – Candidate nomination packages are now available at City Hall from the chief election officer or by downloading it online at the City’s website.

“We’re holding a pre-candidate workshop on February 4th at City Hall in Council Chambers for anyone who is interested in running in the by-election,” says Angie Collison, the City’s chief election officer. “This is a good opportunity to learn more about the role of an elected official and a chance to ask questions of staff. It’s also an opportunity to experience what it might be like to sit at the Council table.”

The workshop will start at 5 p.m.

The candidate nomination package includes:

- Checklist for completing package
- Nomination documents that must be submitted
- Political signage regulations
- Council Code of Conduct

Completed nomination packages will be accepted at City Hall between 9 a.m. on February 18 to 4 p.m. on February 28. Submitted nomination package will be posted on the City’s website.

The general voting day for the by-election is April 5, 2025.

For more information or to download a nomination package, go to www.penticton.ca/elections

-30-

Media Contact:

250-490-2339

communications@penticton.ca